

GRANTS, FELLOWSHIPS, AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Keywords

- fellowships
- financial aid
- grants
- internship
- scholarships
- student aid

Note: Please see a Librarian for more advanced search techniques

Resources

- Books
- Websites
 - Financial Aid for Education
 - Financial Aid for Projects

BOOKS

Directory of Grants in the Humanities, 2003–2004. Westport: Oryx Press.

Information on funding programs in the United States, Canada, and abroad for a wide variety of programs in the arts and humanities.

R 378.3 D5985

Schlachter, Gail Ann, and R. David Weber. College Student's Guide to Merit and Other No-Need Funding, 2002–2004. El Dorado Hills: Reference Service Press.

Describes more than 1,450 funding programs that reward outstanding artistic and creative work or support college studies for currently enrolled or returning college students whatever their income level.

R 378.3097 S338

Schlachter, Gail Ann, and R. David Weber. Directory of Financial Aids for Women, 2005–2007. El Dorado Hills: Reference Service Press.

Describes nearly 1,500 awards open to women (high school through postdoctoral) for education, research, travel, training, and career development.

R 378.3 S338 2005–07

Schlachter, Gail Ann, and R. David Weber. Financial Aid for African Americans, 2003–2005. El Dorado Hills: Reference Service Press.

R 378.3097 F491AF

Schlachter, Gail Ann, and R. David Weber. Financial Aid for Asian Americans, 2003–2005. El Dorado Hills: Reference Service Press.

R 378.3097 F4912

Schlachter, Gail Ann, and R. David Weber. Financial Aid for Hispanic Americans, 2003–2005. El Dorado Hills: Reference Service Press.

All titles in the Financial Aid series list funding opportunities by private and government sources for education, research, and project support in a wide variety of disciplines.

R 378.3097 F4913

Schlachter, Gail Ann, and R. David Weber. Financial Aid for Research and Creative Activities Abroad, 2002–2004. El Dorado Hills: Reference Service Press.

Information on nearly 1,200 funding opportunities for Americans interested in research or creative, professional, or related activities abroad.

R 378.3 F49

Schlachter, Gail Ann, and R. David Weber. Financial Aid for Study and Training Abroad, 2001–2003. El Dorado Hills: Reference Service Press.

More than 1,100 funding opportunities for Americans wanting to pursue structured or independent study abroad.

R 378.3 F491

Schlachter, Gail Ann, and R. David Weber. Financial Aid for Veterans, Military Personnel, and Their Dependents, 2004–2006. El Dorado Hills: Reference Service Press.

Identifies more than 1,250 programs set aside specifically for veterans, military personnel, and their dependents.

R 378.3097 F491

Schlachter, Gail Ann, and R. David Weber. Money for Graduate Students in the Arts and Humanities, 2005–2007. El Dorado Hills: Reference Service Press.

R 378.33 S338M

Schlachter, Gail Ann, and R. David Weber. Money for Graduate Students in the Social and Behavioral Sciences, 2005–2007. El Dorado Hills: Reference Service Press. Funding programs to support graduate study, training, research, and creative activities.

R 378.33 S338MO

Scholarships, Fellowships, and Loans. 21st ed. Detroit: Gale, 2004.

Covers over 7,500 sources of financial aid available to students and professionals for study throughout the world. Various indexes provided.

R 378.3 S3682

Study Abroad, Etudes a l'Etranger, Estudios en el Extranjero, 2004–2005. Paris: UNESCO.

Furnishes information in three languages on over 2,700 international postsecondary study programs, fellowships, scholarships, student employment opportunities, and awards offered by international organizations, governments, foundations, and universities in 147 countries.

R 378.34 S933

WEBSITES

Financial Aid for Education:

AIFS Study Abroad

<<http://www.aifsabroad.com>>

Lists scholarships for studying abroad offered by the American Institute for Foreign Study, and includes application forms.

Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance

<<http://www.cfda.gov>>

This site provides a searchable database of all federal assistance programs and projects for nonprofit organizations, state and local governments, specialized groups, and individuals.

Collegeboard.com

<<http://www.collegeboard.com>>

Collegeboard.com's Scholarship Search allows users to create personal profiles to search over 2,300 sources of college funding.

eduPASS

<<http://www.edupass.org>>

Includes information about financial aid for international students, as well as information about passports, visas, college admissions, and living in the United States.

Fastweb.com

<<http://www.fastweb.com>>

Features a scholarship search engine requiring users to provide information about themselves and their areas of study (free registration required).

FinAid

<<http://www.finaid.org>>

This site provides a scholarship search engine and links to a variety of funding sources, and also contains a great deal of information about financial aid in general, including a glossary, bibliography, and list of frequently asked questions.

Foundation Center

<<http://www.fdncenter.org>>

The Foundation Center, located in Manhattan, is a leading resource for information on foundation grants and other private (as opposed to governmental) financial aid for education. Both its Web site and its free library provide access to information on funding for individuals. Its searchable database, Foundation Grants to Individuals Online, is available for free at the Center's library and for a small monthly fee through the Web site.

Funding Sources on the Internet

<<http://www.grad.washington.edu/fellow/hotlist.htm>>

This site, from the University of Washington, provides an extensive list of links for funding graduate education, including associations and organizations with grant or fellowship information.

Grants for Individuals

<<http://www.lib.msu.edu/harris23/grants/3subject.htm>>

An excellent site by Michigan State University that provides a comprehensive list of links to funding programs for individuals, sorted by academic level, population group, and subject.

New York Student Financial Aid Administrators Association

<http://www.nysfaaa.org/docs/toc_student_families.html>

This site offers information on financial aid for students and their families, and includes links to a variety of scholarship databases.

Peterson's

<<http://www.petersons.com/finaid>>

Peterson's Scholarship Search is one of the largest undergraduate scholarship databases, containing over 1.7 million scholarships, grants, and awards. Free registration is required.

State and Local Government on the Net

<<http://www.statelocalgov.net/index.cfm>>

A directory of official state, county, and city government Web sites. Information on state or local grants and loans is often found through these sites.

The Student Guide

<http://studentaid.ed.gov/students/publications/student_guide/index.html>

This is a comprehensive resource on student loans, grants, and work-study programs from the U.S. Department of Education. From this site users may download the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form required for federal and many state aid programs.

StudyAbroad.com

<http://www.studyabroad.com/Forum/financial_aid.html>

Provides a comprehensive list of resources that can help students find aid for studying abroad.

Supercollege.com

<<http://www.supercollege.com>>

In addition to a scholarship search engine (for which free registration is required), this site provides information on types and sources of financial aid as well as tips and strategies.

Financial Aid for Projects:

Americans for the Arts

<<http://www.artsusa.org>>

Americans for the Arts is the leading advocacy group for the advancement of the arts in the United States, partnering with government agencies, arts associations at a variety of levels, business leaders, and funders to encourage public and private support of the arts. The Web site has no database, but it does offer facts, figures, and other helpful information on the sources and state of arts funding.

Arts Deadlines

<<http://www.xensei.com/users/adl>>

A monthly newsletter listing several hundred funding opportunities, including competitions, scholarships and grants, requests for proposals, juried exhibitions, internships, and residencies. The premium edition requires a monthly subscription fee, but there is also a free e-mail edition.

Bronx Council on the Arts

<<http://www.bronxarts.org>>

A local arts council that provides funding opportunities for individual artists who are Bronx residents through a program called BRIO (Bronx Recognizes Its Own). There are also links to other sources of grants, residencies, and even emergency funds.

Brooklyn Arts Council

<<http://www.brooklynartscouncil.org>>

The Brooklyn Arts Council's Community Arts Regrant Program offers project support to Brooklyn-based organizations and individuals.

Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance

<<http://www.cfda.gov>>

This site provides a searchable database of all federal assistance programs and projects for nonprofit organizations.

Creative Capital

<<http://www.creative-capital.org>>

This important organization supports artists pursuing innovative work in the visual, performing, and emerging arts. In addition to financial aid and promotional support, Creative Capital provides advisory services and professional development assistance.

Foundation Center

<<http://www.fdncenter.org>>

The Foundation Center, located in Manhattan, is a leading resource for information on foundation grants and other private (as opposed to governmental) sources for project support. Both its Web site and its free library provide access to information on funding for individuals. Its searchable database, Foundation Grants to Individuals Online, is available for free at the Center's library and for a small monthly fee on the Web site.

Grants for Individuals

<<http://www.lib.msu.edu/harris23/grants/3subject.htm>>

An excellent site by Michigan State University that provides a comprehensive list of links to funding programs for individuals, sorted by population group and subject.

Lower Manhattan Cultural Council

<http://www.lmcc.net>

LMCC administers several community arts funds to aid Manhattan-based artists.

National Assembly of State Arts Associations

<http://www.nasaa-arts.org>

The Web site of NASAA, the membership organization of the nation's state arts agencies, is an important source of information on state arts funding.

National Endowment for the Arts

<http://www.arts.endow.gov>

The NEA is the nation's largest annual funder of the arts, but gives direct grants mainly to organizations.

National Endowment for the Humanities

<http://www.neh.fed.us>

The NEH is dedicated to supporting education, preservation, and public programs in the humanities. U.S. tax-exempt organizations, U.S. citizens, and foreign nationals who have lived in the United States at least three years immediately preceding an application may apply for grants.

New York Foundation for the Arts

<http://www.nyfa.org>

NYFA is a statewide organization that serves as a clearing-house of information for artists in all disciplines and those who support them. Although the focus is on New York State residents, the listings of its free searchable database, NYFA Source, are national in scope. Users may search by discipline, geographic eligibility, type of award, and services and publications. NYFA also has an active fiscal sponsorship program.

New York State Council on the Arts

<http://www.nysca.org>

NYSCA is a state funding agency providing support for nonprofit arts and cultural organizations in New York State. Individual artists who are New York State residents and are sponsored by a New York State nonprofit organization may apply for support through NYSCA's Individual Artists Program.

Queens Community Arts Fund

<http://www.queenscouncilarts.org/html/qcaf.html>

The Queens Community Arts Fund is a regrant program of the Queens Council on the Arts that provides support for cultural activities in the borough of Queens. Both nonprofit organizations and individual artists may apply for funding.

State and Local Government on the Net

<http://www.statelocalgov.net/index.cfm>

A directory of official state, county, and city government Web sites. Information on government grants or loans is often found through these sites.