

Pratt Institute Libraries – Reproduction Fee Schedule

The Pratt Institute Libraries may, under certain conditions, provide digital reproductions for materials held by its Archives, Special Collections, and Visual Resources departments. If reproductions are warranted, fees will be assessed according to the following schedule. For uses other than private study, scholarship, or research, use fees may also apply, and will be assessed according to the Use Fee Schedule.

Digital files are provided in JPEG format unless otherwise specified (e.g., TIFF, PDF). For printed materials, originals will be scanned at 300dpi. For slides, negatives, transparencies, photographic prints, and graphic art, the scan resolution will be increased to achieve a minimum of 3,000 pixels on the long dimension.

Turnaround time is approximately 2 weeks and payment is required in advance along with a completed Permission to Reproduce form. Orders needed in one week or less are considered Rush orders and rush fees will apply.

The Pratt Institute Libraries do not currently provide photographic film or print reproductions.

The Pratt Institute Libraries reserve the right to refuse any reproduction request that might damage the material, or if, in their judgment, fulfillment of the request would involve violation of copyright law.
